National Institute of Development Administration (NIDA) is accepting applications for the Doctor of Philosophy Program in Communication Arts and Innovation (English Program) Semester 1, Academic Year 2018

1. Available Scholarships

- 1.1 Type I : Recipients are completely exempt from tuition and other fees during the scholarship period and receive a monthly stipend of 10,000 Baht.
- 1.2 Type II : Recipients are completely exempt from tuition fees during the scholarship period.
- 1.3 Type III : Recipients are exempt from half of the tuition fees during the scholarship period.

All three types of scholarships shall have a duration of 3 years starting from the first day of registration as student.

2. Qualifications of Applicants

- 2.1 Plan 1(1.1) (Dissertation Only) 48 credits
- 2.2 Applicants must hold a Master's Degree in any field from an accredited academic institution either in Thailand or another country.
- 2.3 The applicant's minimum cumulative GPA must be no less than 2.75 out of 4.00 for his bachelor's degree and 3.25 out of 4.00 for his master's degree.
- 2.4 Applicants must be proficient in communicating in English throughout the program. English language proficiency must be attested through official TOEFL Paper-Based 550, Computer-Based 213, Internet-Based 79 or IELTS 6.0. TOEFL/IELTS test scores must not be older than 2 years at the time of application. Alternatively test results of NIDA internal language proficiency tests, organized by the Graduate School of Language and Communication, are also accepted (please contact Khun Phanuwat Phumisart at (66) 2727 3147, phanuw.p@nida.ac.th for further information).

Exceptions from the need to provide English language proficiency scores are granted only for native English speakers, or applicants that have obtained their bachelor's degree from international academic institutions where English was the medium of instruction and study. Proper proof is required.

2.5 Applicants must be able to devote sufficient time to their studies and research as required by the syllabus.

Applicants are responsible to check that application forms are complete and make sure that they qualify for admission as announced above. Applicants whose application documents are incomplete or who do not meet the required qualifications will not be considered for admission and may be expelled at any time if found to be in violation of the above qualifications. Any fees paid are non-refundable.

NIDA reserves the right to examine documents and qualifications of an applicant at any time. If it is found that an applicant does not meet the required qualifications, and acceptance has already been given, the announcement of acceptance shall be cancelled. The Institute may not offer any of the programs of study as specified in the curriculums in any given semester depending on the number of enrollees and may therefore resume the program in a subsequent semester.

The Institute reserves the right to make adjustments relating to the admission schedule, tuition fees, and programs of study without prior notice.

Note : Plan 1 (1.1) Applicants must possess good knowledge in research or have experiences in conducting at least one research (not thesis) with the responsibility of no less than 80 per cent, or publish at least one article in academic journals with grants from the acceptable institutions.

2.6 Applicants that have graduated from a university outside of Thailand must obtain a Letter of Confirmation on Standard Curriculum for Bachelor's Degree and Master's Degree from the Commission on Higher Education at the Ministry of Education. This letter can be obtained by submitting a request along with required documents directly to the Bureau of Standards and Evaluation (8 floor) at the Commission on Higher Education, Ministry of Education :
