National Institute of Development Administration

Application for Master's Degree Scholarships

LANGUAGE AND COMMUNICATION or

TEACHING ENGLISH AS AN INTERNATIONAL LANGUAGE

Regular Program (Full-time),

Academic Year 2018 (4th round)

The National Institute of Development Administration (NIDA) aims to encourage and support individuals with outstanding academic performance at Bachelor's Degree level to pursue their Master's Degree education (Regular Program). NIDA is granting scholarships which are classifiable into two types:

1. Scholarship Type 1 Scholarship recipients shall be waived from tuition fees throughout the program of study. Monthly allowances and other educational support will also be provided throughout the program.
2. Scholarship Type 2 Scholarship recipients shall be waived from tuition fees throughout the program of study.

The institute is accepting applications for admission to the Master of Arts Program in Language and Communication (International Program) or Teaching English as an International Language (International Program), for the second semester of academic year 2018. (4th round)

1. Qualification of Applicants Applicants must hold a Bachelor's Degree or the equivalent, or be currently studying in the last semester of a Bachelor's Degree program (applicants must graduate before the beginning of the first semester at NIDA). Applicants must have a minimum GPA at the Bachelor's Degree level as specified below:

Scholarship Type 1 and 2 A GPA of no less than 2.75.

Note : Additional Qualification

Applicants whose native language is not English must prove sufficient English proficiency by submitting results of either the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or International English Language Testing System (IELTS) examination. The test must have been taken not more than two years prior to the application date. Applicants for the M.A. program are required to have a minimum TOEFL paper-based score of 550 or computer-based score of 213 or internet-based score of 79 or the IELTS score of 6.0. If applicants submit their TOEFL/ITP results, the Institute will only consider the results of the TOEFL/ITP exam taken at NIDA. The result is valid for two years. Applicants can alternatively submit NIDA Test of English for Academic Purposes (NIDA TEAP) results of no less than 660 . The result is valid for one year.

Applicants whose native language is English from the USA, UK, Canada, Australia, the New Zealand, Ireland and Scotland are exempted from submitting the standardized test scores above.

The National Institute of Development Administration reserves the right to select the most qualified candidate(s) for the scholarships. The number of available scholarships varies for each of the Institute's graduate schools. The decisions regarding the scholarships are made by the Selection Committee. The selection criteria and the conditions for scholarship recipients comply with regulations as stipulated by the National Institute of Development Administration. Students who are not awarded scholarships are still eligible for regular admission. The Institute accepts applicants who are undergoing their last semester of a Bachelor's Degree, given that they graduate before the day of the beginning of the semester.

- Note: 1. Criteria for granting type 1 2 and 3 scholarships are stipulated in NIDA's announcement on the student qualifications.
2. Application schedules, tuition fees and available programs are subject to change without prior notice.

Date of announcement: August 22, 2018
